PART II TEACHING PLAN

Introduction

ATTENTION: Today, we are going continue to conduct squadron drill with all positions filled.

MOTIVATION: Do you, as an individual, believe that you are sufficiently knowledgeable to perform your assigned position or to perform the movements correctly?

OVERVIEW: The continuation of drill by squadron, with all positions filled is conducted to reinforce this more complex type of drill performance. It will take each person's attention to every detail, to perform the movements correctly.

TRANSITION: FALL IN!

Body

NOTE: The instructor will have selected cadet staff members execute appropriate drill commands and movements for the squadron drill as listed below. As time allows, practice the commands and movements to ensure everyone knows the proper movements of squadron drill.

Conclusion

SUMMARY: During this period, you have executed squadron drill using cadet staff members in all positions while using all of the previous learned movements.

REMOTIVATION: The more you practice the different sizes of a drill unit, the more the cadets will become familiar with the different styles of commands.

CLOSURE: FALL OUT!
